He has held the position of Resident Scholar for the Black Archives of Mid America, Inc., and he has worked as the Historian in Resident for the Bruce R. Watkins Cultural Center. Sonny sets a true example of the qualities we should look for in all public servants: dedication, perseverance, and a deep, generous love for his community.

Sonny's unwavering devotion and tireless commitment has made a profound impact on the Kansas City community, so I am truly privileged to be able to recognize Sonny's efforts today. Madam Speaker, please join me and Missouri's Fifth Congressional District in celebrating Mr. Elvis "Sonny" Gibson. Our history is how we understand ourselves, and every day, Sonny helps us understand ourselves a bit better. Let us all seek to emulate his example by dedicating ourselves to service, dismantling injustice in all its forms, and affirming that the American story is incomplete so long as so many American stories are left off its pages. Let us continue to add new pages, so that we may be able to make history by writing it down.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF FIRST LADY ROSANNE
SANTOS ADA

HON. MICHAEL F.Q. SAN NICOLAS

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 8, 2021

Mr. SAN NICOLAS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Rosanne Santos Ada. Rosanne was a former first lady of Guam and dedicated public servant. The people of Guam will fondly remember her as a leader whose decades of contributions to our underserved communities and whole-hearted compassion strengthened our island community.

When Rosanne's husband, Joseph Ada, was elected to office as the Governor of Guam in 1987, she rose to proudly serve our people as its first lady for eight years. In addition to being a dedicated wife, mother, and grandmother, she is widely known as a passionate advocate for members of our community in most need. As a first lady, she advocated for greater support and services for individuals with disabilities, and her contributions to this community further expanded through her work as a director at the Department of Integrated Services for Individuals with Disabilities and Executive Director of the Guam Developmental Disabilities Council. Taking on these roles of leadership in our community, Rosanne further assisted in developing culturally competent programs to promote self-determination, independence, and productivity for individuals with disabilities. Further, she worked for and with individuals with disabilities and their families in advocating for systems change, public policy, and best practices which accounted for the full inclusion and integration of individuals with disabilities in all facets of community life.

Her lifelong mission of selfless service and advocacy for the voiceless also poured out into other parts of her career as well. Alongside her colleagues at Guma' Mami, a community-based nonprofit organization, Rosanne continued her work of inclusion and integration while facilitating supportive housing and successful case management for adults with disabilities. This profound commitment to others above and before self truly proved limitless through her continued work for the marginalized during Eddie Calvo's gubernatorial administration.

Rosanne Ada is an icon of servant leadership, dear friend to many, and esteemed champion of equitable support systems for all. Her life's work illustrates a humbling devotion to seeking justice in places often overlooked, and I join the people of Guam in remembering and celebrating her life and legacy of unconditional commitment to serving the people she leaves behind. I extend my deepest condolences to former Governor Joseph Ada, their children Eric, Tricia, and Ester, and the rest of their family and friends. Rosanne will be deeply missed, and her love and memories will forever remain in the hearts of the people of Guam.
